

Benedict Pepowski, 28, Three Lakes
Unknown Lake
Fell through the ice
Drowned

Three Lakes Man is Drown (sic) Last Evening

Broke Through Ice Over Lake While Enroute to Resort Where He Works

Taking a short cut across a frozen lake to a Three Lakes resort where he was employed as a caretaker, Benedict Pepowski lost his life last night at about 6 o'clock when he broke through the ice and was drowned.

Pepowski was seen shortly before the accident, and when he failed to appear at the resort, other employees started in search, and recovered the body from the lake.

He was born on March 16, 1899, in Wisconsin, and had spent most of his life in Oneida county. He was never married but is survived by his father, Albert Pepowski, and a sister, Katherine Pepowski both of whom live at Three Lakes.

Funeral services will be held either Monday or Tuesday at Three Lakes, definite arrangements not having been made.
